

Ice Breaker- describe how a Christian can walk through today's tough times without

March 8, 2009

Read Acts 21:10-14. Why does fear and empowers others?

Why do you think Paul would not be dissuaded him? Have you ever been this convinced of paralyze some people, while it challenges even after everything they were telling something?

God hasn't given you a spirit of fear....then where does it come from? Do you recognize the enemy, the devil, as the source of your fears? How do you stand against him?

Power, love and a sound mind. Describe these three areas- what do they mean for us today? How can we displace our fears by the Holy Spirit using these three elements?

Pray- to be stirred up (in God's calling for us)- and not shaken by the enemies resistance.
Vision- "to impact the region"- as the Lord makes us different in the attitude of our hearts and our trust in Him.
