Pray for those who are facing physical sickness- for their healing and for peace to flow through their families as well.

Ice Breaker- What one item in the kitchen best describes your personality.

Do you think that Christianity has rules? Explain.

Read Judges 21:15-25. It says that “everyone did what was right in their own eyes.” What does this mean to you? How does this happen?

When what I believe is in conflict with what God believes, I can do it His way or deal with the consequences of whatever. Have you ever faced the consequences of doing things your way?

Talk about the areas where many in the church often give into the “spirit of the age”. Money, Power & Sex.

So how do we live in the world without being trapped in the attitudes and actions of the world we live in?

FYF needs: Pray for those who are not yet serving to get involved. Let’s make it an effort to invite someone to serve alongside with us.
